Terminated Employees – Request For Retroactive Payment Form

 Complete this only if you are currently terminated or if you previously terminated from another Employer Organization and are now paid from a different payroll system with your new employer

As a result of the ratification of the Collective Agreement between the employer and the union:

- If you resigned or retired you may be eligible for retroactive increases per the terms of the collective agreement.
- You must complete this form and email it to your former employer to apply to receive any eligible retroactive payment.
- Your request (if eligible) will be processed and deposited into your existing bank account on file with your previous employer.
- If your banking information has changed since your employment ended, you must complete the banking information form.
- Both the request for retroactive payment form and the Direct Deposit form must be emailed together to the payroll office of your former employer. Contacts and email addresses for all offices found below.
